•	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
	INIEM PADA A THE ALL AND A SHARE	REPORT
	INFORMATION REPORT	CD NO.
OUNTRY	Germany (Russian Zone)	DATE DISTR. 20 APR	51
JBJECT	Radio and Radar Installations	NO. OF PAGES 2
ACE CQUIRED		NO. OF ENCLS. 4	50X1-HUM
ATE OF FO.		SUPPLEM REPORT
The document of the control of the c	COPTAINS REPORTED A PERSONNEL THE NATIONAL DEFENDS. FAVES WITHIN THE EXAMINATOR THE REPORTED OF THE PERSONNEL AS A ALBERDON. "TO TRANSFIRSTION OF THE CEPTATION OF THE PERSONNEL TO THE PERSONNE	LUATED INFORMATION
			50X1-HUM
1.	Brandis Airfield (31 December 2010 and 30 to	andra N
	Brandis Airfield (31 December 1950 and 19 January 19
	a. A fixed radio station was observed at Brandis Ai 1950 in the immediate vicinity of the field's un machine \to No buildings or radio the mast. No radar equipment was observed on or	derground water pumpin	na.
	b. On 19 January 1951 two trucks were observed near	the facility of the location of the Russ-2 on the Kohlenberg was unc	المصيحين
2.		mankod.
	Staaken Airfield (1 January 1951)
	Staaken Airfield (1 January 1951)
	Staaken Airfield (1 January 1951) a. Two Adcock direction-finding stations, proviously		Lđ ,
3. (Staaken Airfield (1 January 1951) a. Two Adcock direction finding stations, previously are still in position. Schoenwalde Airfield (1 January 1951)	y observed at the field in position on the air station have recent	50X1-HUM
3。 :	a. Two Adcock direction-finding stations, previously are still in position. Schoenwalde Airfield (1 January 1951) a. The Russ-2 set, previously observed, is still side of the Boetzow-Schoenwalde road, opposite the field. The masts of the Adcock direction-finding been replaced. For some time, only the but was of the still still still the results of the still still the results of the Adcock direction-finding been replaced.	y observed at the field in position on the air station have recent	50X1-HUM
3. ;	a. Two Adcock direction-finding stations, previously are still in position. Schoenwalde Airfield (1 January 1951) a. The Russ-2 set, previously observed, is still side of the Boetzow-Schoenwalde road, opposite the field. The masts of the Adcock direction-finding been replaced. For some time, only the hut was of in place. Wittstock Airfield (14-27 January 1951) a. A Dumbo radar set, previously reported, remains i operation daily. The array moves at a constant segrees. On occasions it moves when no aircraft the cable which leads to the Dumbo is about four It is carried on poles from the buildings of the control hut, which stands about 20 maters from the	y observed at the field of the position on the was entrance to the air station have recently observed, with no most of 100 are seen in the air centimeters in diameter of 100 are seen in the air.	50X1-HUM sest 50X1-HUM y s
3. ;	a. Two Adcock direction-finding stations, previously are still in position. Schoenwalde Airfield (1 January 1951) a. The Russ-2 set, previously observed, is still side of the Boetzow-Schoenwalde road, opposite the field. The masts of the Adcock direction-finding been replaced. For some time, only the hut was on place. Wittstock Airfield (14-27 January 1951) a. A Dumbo radar set, previously reported, remains in operation daily. The array moves at a constant segment of the cable which leads to the Dumbo is about four It is carried on poles from the buildings of the	y observed at the field of the position on the water station have recently observed, with no most of 100 are seen in the air. Contineters in diameter in the seen installation. From at the seen in th	50X1-HUM sest 50X1-HUM y s
3。 ; 4。 ;	a. Two Adcock direction-finding stations, previously are still in position. Schoenwalde Airfield (1 January 1951) a. The Russ-2 set, previously observed, is still side of the Boetzow-Schoenwalde road, opposite the field. The masts of the Adcock direction-finding been replaced. For some time, only the hut was of in place. Wittstock Airfield (14-27 January 1951) a. A Dumbo radar set, previously reported, remains i operation daily. The array moves at a constant s degrees. On occasions it moves when no aircraft The cable which leads to the Dumbo is about four It is carried on poles from the buildings of the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the there it runs on the ground to the foot of the magnetic stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut runs on the ground to the foot of the magnetic stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut.	y observed at the field of the position on the water station have recently observed, with no most of 100 are seen in the air. Contineters in diameter in the seen installation. From at the seen in th	50X1-HUM sest 50X1-HUM y s
3。 ; 4。 ;	a. Two Adcock direction-finding stations, previously are still in position. Schoenwalde Airfield (1 January 1951) a. The Russ-2 set, previously observed, is still side of the Boetzow-Schoenwalde road, opposite the field. The masts of the Adcock direction-finding been replaced. For some time, only the hut was of in place. Wittstock Airfield (14-27 January 1951) a. A Dumbo radar set, previously reported, remains i operation daily. The array moves at a constant s degrees. On occasions it moves when no aircraft The cable which leads to the Dumbo is about four It is carried on poles from the buildings of the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the there it runs on the ground to the foot of the magnetic stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut runs on the ground to the foot of the magnetic stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut.	y observed at the field of the position on the water station have recently observed, with no most of 100 are seen in the air. Contineters in diameter in the seen installation. From at the seen in th	50X1-HUM sest 50X1-HUM y s
3. ;	a. Two Adcock direction-finding stations, previously are still in position. Schoenwalde Airfield (1 January 1951) a. The Russ-2 set, previously observed, is still side of the Boetzow-Schoenwalde road, opposite the field. The masts of the Adcock direction-finding been replaced. For some time, only the hut was of in place. Wittstock Airfield (14-27 January 1951) a. A Dumbo radar set, previously reported, remains i operation daily. The array moves at a constant s degrees. On occasions it moves when no aircraft The cable which leads to the Dumbo is about four It is carried on poles from the buildings of the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the there it runs on the ground to the foot of the magnetic stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut runs on the ground to the foot of the magnetic stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut, which stands about 20 meters from the control hut.	y observed at the field of the position on the water entrance to the air station have recently observed, with no most of 100 are seen in the air contineters in diameter "Flugleitung" to the installation. From st, winds upwards on a rectangular metal be	50X1-HUM sest 50X1-HUM y s

Auth.: HR 70-2
Date: 3 1 JUL 1978

Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2011/05/09 : CIA-RDP82-00457R007300570009-4

50X1-HUM

SECTET/CONTROL - U.S. CETTCEALS ONLY

50X1-HUM

CENTRAL THRESHIGHNOE ACTION

--?--

		معم ي محد
		in the center of the array (appr The poles carrying the cable to telephone wires, on insulators, control hut.	the control but also car	ov a pair of
	Ъø	The radio aerial on the roof of lation and not a rod-aerial as p	the workshop hangar is a reviously reported.	two-mast instal-
	C.	A second mobile radio truck, with stationed with the one previously corner of No. 1 hangar.	a acrial in operational of reported	position, is at the eastern
20	Gro	ssenhain Airfield (20 January)		50X1-HUM
	The Dumbo radar set, previously observed, is still in position on the north boundary of the airfield. It has not been seen in action.
Ž.	Des	sau Airfield (26 January 1951)		50X1-HUM
	a,	A mobile radar vehicle, carrying observed west of position "D"	a curola type acrial as	dembly, was
7 2	Loh	ne (Isle of Bucgen) (2 February)		50X1-HUM
	a. Four large steel towers, each about 50 meters high have been constructed at the radio station at Lohne

SECRET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS CHIX